In just a few short years, AZFoothills.com has become the southwest's choice for style, substance, and sophistication. How do we know? AZFoothills.com now ranks in the top 20,000 websites in the US, is visited by millions each year and has more Twitter followers than majority of the media outlets here in the Valley. We love finding new and fresh content - from people and places to things to do, it is our mission to share the very best with our readers in real time.

However, we realize that there are other fantastic voices to be heard in the state of Arizona, and are proud to celebrate the blogs we read when we go home at night. Submitted for your perusal (and voting): the first-ever Battle of the Blogs contest!
