

Kendra Scott Jewelry Celebrates Starstruck Launch and New Location

Written by Karah Van Kammen

Kendra Scott Jewelry is set to open its newest location in Tucson next month at the city's premiere high-end shopping destination, La Encantada. The Tucson store will be Kendra Scott's second Arizona boutique with more than fifteen locations nationwide. The Kendra Scott brand, launched in 2002 with a mini-jewelry collection, is also currently available at renowned retailers like Nordstrom, Neiman Marcus, Bloomingdales and 1,000+ specialty boutiques worldwide. Kendra Scott La Encantada will join the likes of other luxury retailers on site like Kate Spade, Anthropologie, BCBG, Louis Vuitton, lululemon, and more. A grand opening event for the new store will be hosted on Monday November 10th, stay tuned to AZFoothills.com for more details!

The Kendra Scott Scottsdale Quarter location will be hosting a fabulous party for the launch of their winter collection entitled Starstruck. Pop into the Scottsdale store between 5p – 8p for bites from Capital Grille Promenade and sips from Chandon. Guests will be the first to view the heavenly new collection and twenty percent of proceeds from the evenings sales will go directly to the Junior League of Phoenix.

JOIN US FROM 5-8 PM AND 20% OF THE EVENING'S PROCEEDS WILL BE DONATED TO THE JUNIOR LEAGUE OF PHOENIX
