

ENVY Residences Names Exclusive Realtor

Written by Melissa Larsen

Scottsdale's ENVY Residences has selected Roberta Candelaria of Phoenix Urban Spaces, a top-selling veteran of the Scottsdale condominium market, as its Exclusive Listing Agent. Candelaria, who closes more than $10 million in condo sales each year, will list ENVY's 89 limited-edition residences that will range between $350,000 to over $1 million. Candelaria and her team are primed to begin sales on these exclusive listings this fall.

"We are thrilled to partner with an agent team with such exceptional market knowledge and far-reaching relationships," says Rob Lyles, partner for Deco Communities, ENVY's developer. "Urban Spaces vast experience in the Scottsdale real estate market has prepared them to serve our clients with the highest level of dedication and diligence," he said. ENVY will offer an unprecedented level of luxury that is in high demand by sophisticated homebuyers in the heart of Scottsdale's urban core, and ENVY is proud to have Roberta Candelaria and team bring this unique and exclusive offering to our clients."
