

Where to See July 4th Fireworks in Phoenix

Written by Victoria Fouts

Celebrate the 4th of July with the best fireworks display the Valley can offer. Grab your friends and family and enjoy an evening of good food, music, and a sparkling bright night sky.

Independence Day Music Festival at Salt River Fields

This one starts a day early on July 3rd but that certainly doesn't mean it won't be a fantastic Independence celebration! Enjoy some great live country music from huge stars such as Brantley Gilbert, Tyler Farr and the LoCash Cowboys. Gates open at 5 p.m., music begins at 5:30 p.m. and the fireworks will be launched at 9:45 p.m. Tickets start at $20. For more information, please call 800.745.3000. <http://www.saltriverfields.com/>

Ahwatukee Red, White & Boom

Presented by Vision Community Management, produced by HDE Agency and hosted by the Ahwatukee Foothills Chamber of Commerce, this party promises to be huge! Come celebrate at the Ahwatukke Country Club from 4- 10 p.m. on July 3, 2013 for great food and a whole evening filled with concerts, a bratwurst eating competition and a water slide for the kids, and an evening of spectacular fireworks starting at 9 p.m. Entry is free but those wanting to enter the tented Boom Room, which features private bathrooms and catered food, should expect to pay $25 in the VIP area. To purchase your Boom Room tickets ahead of time, please contact the Ahwatukee Chamber at 480.753.7676. For further information, please call 602.276.2499. <http://red-white-boom.com/>

Where to See July 4th Fireworks in Phoenix

Written by Victoria Fouts

Wet 'n' Wild

Not only will there be water slides but also an Independence Day BBQ. The Red Rock Ravine picnic area in the park will be serving up delicious food and drinks from 6:30- 8 p.m. followed by the firework show at 9:30 p.m. Guests must pay park admission. To eat BBQ, tickets are $9.99 plus tax for all Gold Season Pass and Season Pass holders; $9.99 plus tax for ages 3-11; and $11.99 ages 12+. Tickets will be available in advance online soon. <http://wetnwildphoenix.com/Events/Upcoming-Events-.htm>

Fourth of July Freedom Fest

Celebrate the Fourth in style at the Fairmont Scottsdale Princess! Every Saturday evening, all summer long until Labor Day on Sept. 2, the Fairmont will be launching fireworks. However, they are going all out for their poolside fireworks display from July 4-7! American-style picnics, concerts, and time set aside for honoring those serving in the military will highlight Freedom Fest. Make sure you don't miss out on all the hotel has to offer; make your reservations now! <http://www.scottsdaleprincess.com/seasonal-events/summer-at-the-princess>

Freedom Wireless Fabulous Phoenix Fourth/ Independence Day Celebrations

From 6- 10 p.m. at Steele Indian School Park in Central Phoenix, one of the largest free fireworks displays in the area will take place. The fireworks will begin at 9:30 p.m. but there will be plenty of local entertainment and games for guests while they wait. The sponsors promise a "Hurricane Mister" to help cool people off from the July heat, a classic car exhibit, and a Patriotic Program. This event offers fun for the whole family and will have many fun activities for the kids. More than 50 different food and beverage vendors will also be present. <http://phoenix.gov/parks/fabphx4.html>

Where to See July 4th Fireworks in Phoenix

Written by Victoria Fouts

Tempe Town Lake Festival

Gates will open at 5 p.m. but make sure you arrive early. This is one of the biggest fireworks displays offered in the Valley so traffic is guaranteed to be heavy. The park will offer entertainment with a variety of performers from the time the gate opens until closing at 11 p.m. The fireworks will be shot from Mill Avenue Bridge between 9:20- 9:55 p.m. Tickets bought ahead of time at Fry's stores cost $6 for adults; free for children 12 and under. If purchased at the gate, entry costs $8 or two for $15. For more information call 480.350.5189.

<http://www.tempetourism.com/events/3452/>

Fourth of July Fireworks Fest at Westgate Entertainment District

From 5- 9:30 p.m. the West Valley's largest fireworks display will be lighting up the sky over the Westgate Entertainment District's Fountain Park. The kids can enjoy a refreshing splash pad and face painting before the show while the adults listen to live American Rock & Roll. Some Westgate restaurants will be participating in providing picnic meals for those interested in enjoying dinner during the show. Afterwards, guests 21 years and older can take part in a pub crawl featuring incredible deals. For more information and to see what deals will be offered, please visit the Westgate Web site. <http://westgatecitycenter.com/fourth/>

Cave Creek Smokehouse and Pour House Patio

This Cave Creek restaurant is offering a fun family evening with fireworks beginning at dusk. During the show, soda and water will only cost $1. Partiers can enjoy an all-day BBQ and live performances until the evening display. Happy hour is from 11 a.m. - 6 p.m. For more information call 480.488.3317. <http://cavecreeksmokehouse.net/events?yr=2013&month=7&dy=&cid=all>

Where to See July 4th Fireworks in Phoenix

Written by Victoria Fouts

All American Festival

Head on over to the Main Stadium and Mariner practice fields in Peoria for fireworks, fun, and food. The event will take place from 5- 10 p.m. with fireworks launching at 9:15 p.m. Admission is $5. Children can enjoy face painting and games in the Kids Zone with music from Radio Disney. Parking is free, as are children 12 and under. No alcohol is allowed at this event. Please visit the event Web site for more information. <http://peoriasportscomplex.com/sportscontent.aspx?id=38680>

Chandler's Fireworks Celebration

Tumbleweed Park in Chandler will brighten the sky with a fireworks display starting at 9 p.m. for July 4. The show will last about 20-25 minutes. While food and drinks will be available for purchase, it should be noted that alcohol is strictly forbidden. You may park on the southwest corner of Germann and McQueen Roads - enter from McQueen Road (near the Tennis Center) or at the lot off of Hamilton Street - enter off of Hamilton Street and Germann Road (at the corner of the Park & Ride). Parking is $5. There will be no additional entertainment or games at this event, only the fireworks show. The park will open at 7 p.m. For additional information please call the Chandler Special Events Hotline at 480.782.2735. <http://www.chandleraz.gov/default.aspx?pageid=162>