

Family Dining on Your Orange County Trip

Written by Amanda Rumore

California living is the envy of all, and us Phoenixians are known for taking advantage of the beautiful coastal state to our west. It's no secret that throughout the year, many Phoenix residents opt for family road trips to Southern California.

Dana Point is a city located in southern Orange County, California. It has one of the few harbors along the Orange County coast, and with ready access via State Route 1, it is an ultra- popular destination for Phoenix families looking for a luxurious road trip.

As a mom, I know firsthand that a family trip can quickly become unmanageable if not planned properly. And planning properly definitely includes dining. When visiting new places, arranging family dining in advance can often seem difficult.

For those of you planning a family trip to Orange County, we have the best dining spots in Dana Point for your entire family. In fact, we visited them all and can ensure you they are tested and approved!

Brunch: Club 19 at Monarch Beach Resort

Overlooking the Monarch Beach Golf Link's first tee, Club 19 offers a truly unique view. Flowing seamlessly from the inside dining area and bar to the outdoor patio, both with cozy fireplaces, Club 19 delights with classic American fare, big screen televisions and an unmatched view of the golf course and beyond to the Pacific Ocean.

- Menu favorites: Some breakfast favorites include classic brioche french toast, smoked salmon benedict and club 19 chorizo breakfast burrito. Lunch favorites include marinated eggplant sandwich, lemon ricotta tortellini and the quebec lobster roll.
