

Pumpkin Patches in Phoenix 2016

Written by Maxi Mertens

Whether you like your pumpkins baked, carved or steamed in your latte, there is no denying that pumpkin season is officially here. Every October, Valley families flock to the nearest pumpkin patch in search of the best. To make it a little easier, we've rounded up the some of the best pumpkin picking spots in Arizona.

Mother Nature Farms

Stop by this family-owned and -operated pumpkin farm in Gilbert, rated the best pumpkin patch by Phoenix New Times. Through the month of October from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., Mother Nature farms offers a plethora of pumpkins, ranging in size from one ounce to as large as 500 pounds. Entrance to the farm includes a pumpkin, a sticker bag, air bounce, hayride, animal feeding, mazes and more. So bring your family and friends for an all-day pumpkin adventure. Price of admission is $3 per adult and $10 per child 1 year and older. www.mothenaturesfarm.com

Apple Annie's Orchard

For pumpkins at the peak of the season, pack up the family and head to Apple Annie's Pumpkin Patch in Wilcox. Choose from a farm of gorgeous full -size pumpkins, as well as apples, peaches and corn. But don't wait too long, this farm only stays open until Oct.31. The orchard is open from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Admission is free for everyone. <http://www.appleannies.com/>

MacDonald's Ranch

Throughout the month of October, MacDonald's Ranch will be hosting its Annual Pumpkin Festival in Scottsdale. Enjoy the peak-of-the-season pumpkin patch, petting zoo, hay rides and more. Best of all, bring a can of food to donate to Desert Mission Food Bank and receive $1 off the entrance fee. Hours are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays and weekends, with the exception of Tuesdays and the evening of Halloween. Admission is $10 for everyone 1 and up. <http://www.macdonaldsranch.com/pumpkin-patch-info.htm>
