

Luxury Apartment of the Month in Phoenix: The Regents

Written by Elizabeth Dobbins

Mark-Taylor's the Regents at Scottsdale are apartments designed for a luxury lifestyle. A fantastic location, comfortable accommodations, and ample amenities, make sure residents' units feel like both home and paradise.

Just off of Frank Lloyd Wright and the 101 stand Mark-Taylor's luxury apartments, the Regents at Scottsdale. With views of the McDowell Mountains and in proximity to everything from the Scottsdale Sports Complex to Kierland Commons, the Regents' prime location is an effortless melding of beauty and convenience. Spending the afternoon on the greens at McDowell Mountain Golf Club or dining at one of the many restaurants and bars in Scottsdale Corridor are equally viable options when both are but a short car ride away.

Though the location is ideal, residents may want to set aside some time to spend at home to enjoy the amenities offered by the Regents' complex. Set amongst the green lawns and desert landscaping are two resort style pools complete with a water feature and whirlpool spa. Poolside cabanas and a wet bar will keep loungers happy and out of the heat. For the occasional less-than-sunny day, the clubhouse has a full kitchen and lounge. After spending the morning at the onsite 24/7 fitness center or working at the well-equipped business center, residents can kick back and enjoy the media room's big-screen TV and video library.

Amenities inside the apartments are equally impressive. From the soft plush carpet to the contemporary track lighting to the optional private patio, the Regents ensure comfort and elegance. Move-in hassles are minimized by the inclusion of a dishwasher, microwave, refrigerator, full-sized washer and dryer, and the prewiring of the apartment for cable. Spacious walk-in closets and covered parking with the option for a private garage set this pet friendly complex apart from typical apartment offerings. With rates ranging from $769 to $1385 for these 1 to 3 bedroom luxury apartments, the Regents mixes the practical with the stylish making it a perfect abode for anyone who wants the attractions of Scottsdale at their fingertips, resort-like amenities, and a beautiful yet comfortable space to call their own.
