

Luxury Apartment of the Month in Phoenix: San Norterra

Written by Jaclyn Weishar

Set in the gorgeous landscape of the foothills, Mark-Taylor's San Norterra offers picturesque views second to none. Tenants at this stunning gated community can take in the beautiful backdrop while they enjoy its state of the art appliances and top notch amenities.

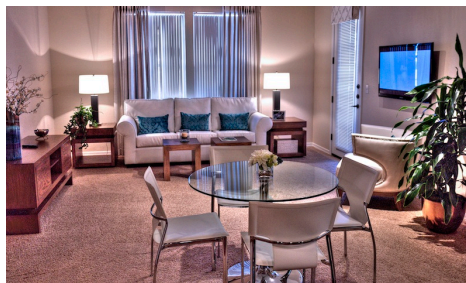

Now you can enjoy the Mark-Taylor lifestyle in the North Valley, where San Norterra combines easy access to the beauty of nature with the convenience of a rapidly growing area. You're only a few minutes from great restaurants, shopping and entertainment at Happy Valley Towne Center, Desert Ridge Marketplace and The Shops at Norterra -- while the Sonoran Desert Preserve and Cave Creek Recreation area are right outside your door.

With rates starting at $960, you can choose your favorite of ten spacious floor plans with one, two and three bedrooms featuring nine-foot ceilings with fans. Hardwood flooring and stainless steel appliances complement the stylish, contemporary design. Take advantage of having your own washer & dryer, walk-in closet, and patio or balcony with extra storage space and fabulous views. Some plans also include the luxury of a Roman soaking tub and an optional private garage.

San Norterra features a fitness center open 24 hours a day, a sparkling pool and whirlpool spa, and a sociable clubhouse for enjoying old and new friends in the lounge. This residency also includes a business center, cyber café with WiFi and a picnic area with barbecue grills perfect for gathering all of your friends.

Look no further for a contemporary community that has everything you need, rolled into one beautiful apartment complex.
