

What Should You Consider When Moving To A Resort Community?

Written by Christina Tetreault

Homebuyers in Arizona are accustomed to world-class golf courses, gorgeous mountain views, and endless activities that run the gamut from hiking to sculpting. So, it's no surprise they often struggle with the decision on exactly where to purchase. When looking for a place to retire, start a second career, or just enjoy life to the fullest, how do you find the perfect fit?

The key is to search for the best lifestyle, community and amenities to suit your individual interests and needs. For that, homebuyers turn to renowned homebuilder Trilogy by Shea Homes.

Trilogy takes the home buying process to the next level by offering shoppers the unique experience of trying a home before purchasing. Through the Taste The Good Life program, offered at Encanterra and Vistancia, homebuyers are invited to stay in a Trilogy home, experience what the community has to offer beyond what you can read in the sales brochure, and get to know real life Trilogy homeowners. You not only get a personal look into Trilogy's five-star resort staff and service, you also get a unique glimpse into the camaraderie of close-knit neighborhoods and friends.

After this experience, the decision to move to a Trilogy resort community becomes a simple one to make. The mission to offer homebuyers the best of all worlds is central to everything Trilogy does, and it's what living The Good Life is all about.

Homebuyers in Arizona are especially fortunate with three Trilogy communities from which to choose – and a brand new location on the horizon in Scottsdale.

Encanterra Country Club

For the homebuyer interested in luxurious amenities in a completely private setting, Encanterra's location in the Southeast Valley is perfection. Surrounded by the natural beauty of the Sonoran Desert, Encanterra's amenities, private Club and championship golf course treat homeowners to a vacation every day.

Trilogy at Vistancia

For those seeking easy access to restaurants and shopping, Trilogy at Vistancia in Phoenix's Northwest Valley exudes vibrancy in a pristine desert setting. Now is an excellent time to visit as Vistancia is in the midst of introducing an exciting phase of all-new homes this fall, featuring six brand new models with mid-century modern design elements.

Trilogy at Wickenburg Ranch

For the homebuyer who finds solace in the outdoors, Wickenburg Ranch offers unparalleled access to nature's beauty from the comfort of home. From the breathtaking pinks and purples of the Bradshaw Mountains at sunset to luxuriously appointed outdoor living spaces, residents are surrounded by Arizona's unmatched landscapes.
