

Daily Buzz-25 Degrees Opens

Written by Claire Perkins

Monday, 15 June 2009 08:24 -

25 Degrees...too cool!

AFM had a sneak peek of 25 Degrees Friday and Saturday, and it is just too awesome to be true! All desert dwellers can try it out now- it opens today on High Street at CityNorth!

One of only three locations worldwide, Phoenix will follow in Beijing and Hollywood's footsteps with this "burger-meets-bordello" restaurant concept. Complete with brocade wallpaper and black crystal chandeliers, a hoppin' bar and sexy tunes, this luxurious spot specializes in build-your-own burgers, with tasty add-on options like roasted tomatoes, pesto, and 14 types of cheese. Be sure to save your Weightwatchers points- the onion rings, sweet potato fries and spiked shakes are all totally splurge-worthy. Best of all, the prices are completely affordable, with burgers topping out at about $12.

Directly across from the happening Blue Martini, we're sure 25 Degrees will turn into another one of those 2-hour wait places. Try it now, before it gets popular!