

Pinteresty

Why does everything dreamy, retro and cute automatically whisper "Pinterest" in our ears? I dream about wearing it to a birthday party decorated with mason jars and fabric flags and splashing in an ocean with my blonde model friends, and then eating cupcakes baked into ice cream cones.

This little bandeau suit is super sweet, with bows and polka dots, and was just made for a Pinterest board. It can be custom-made to fit you, thanks to little Etsy shop Amourouse.

Add it to your "If Minnie Mouse were human and really cute" board.
