Kathy Shayna Shocket has the inside scoop on the stories that make headlines.

Take a look inside the Alaskan Governor's north Scottsdale estate.

Former Alaska Gov. Sarah Palin is now selling the north Scottsdale 5-acre estate she and her family purchased as a second home, about four years ago. It's an impressive property! But the 6- bedroom, nearly 8,000 square foot abode is now too big for the Palins and they're asking $2.5 million.

You drive up to the estate from a wrap around drive to access the private-gated compound. The home boasts a six-car garage, putting green and full-length basketball court. And it's equestrian zoned.

Real estate agent Richard Barker of Keller Williams has the listing for the home with soaring ceilings, a media center, wine cellar and opulent chandeliers .

The craftsmanship extends to the resort themed backyard with fireplaces off the covered patio, veranda & rooftop deck off of the master suite.

Luxury abounds with a built-in grill station, fire-pit, sparkling blue pool and spa.

FYI... private showings only. Stay tuned on who the new owner will be.
