Kathy Shayna Shocket has the inside view behind the stories that make headlines.

The Olympian swimmer's Paradise Valley pool and other luxuries.

This 6,010 square-foot SPLASHY house in Paradise Valley, AZ, is home to the most decorated Olympian, swimmer Michael Phelps! Let's take a look inside. The pool of course is one of the splashiest luxuries in this newly built home. (Michael recently sold his Baltimore home and he and fiancée Nicole recently welcomed their first child.)

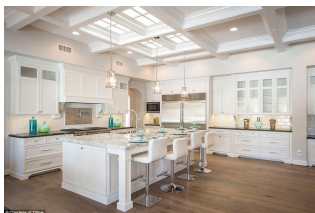

Fit for an Olympian King, the five bedroom, for which he paid $2.5 million, is a masterpiece!

Henry Mohrschlatt, the award-winning builder of world-class sailboats & yachts, teamed up with Craig Banner of American Tradition Builders to create the stunning abode.

The estate's craftsmanship and attention to detail is seen throughout the property, boasting European stone, imported hardwood floors, custom lighting and top-of-the-line appliances,

There are four fireplaces, including a back outdoor living area, and a luxurious spa of course. It's all pre-wired for full automation smartphone control. The patios have imported Concha Stone quarried from an ancient seabed.

The private home has lush landscaping, fruit trees, and beautiful views of Camelback mountain.

The world famous athlete has said he and Nicole are looking forward to decorating a nursery.
