The chill has left the air and Spring Training season is finally here once again! While you're taking advantage of the great games across the Valley, don't miss out on some of the great packages and events that resorts are holding to make the season even more exciting.

Montelucia Resort and Spa

Montelucia Resort and Spa in Scottsdale is offering guests their Triple Play Package, perfect for tourists from out of town or even just a quick baseball getaway. When you book three nights at Montelucia, you will receive a $300 resort credit to use at Prado, their signature restaurant, or on any treatment at Joya Spa.

The Triple Play Package begins at $349 per night from now until April 30. For more information and to book your stay, visit <http://www.montelucia.com/springtraining/>.

The Scottsdale Resort and Conference Center

The Scottsdale Resort is offering the Batter Up! Spring Training Package that includes an overnight stay, an in-room, delivered pancake breakfast and transportation to Salt River Fields to watch the game.

The V.I.P. Spring Training Package for two includes private transportation to and from the airport, a dinner of beef sliders and beer, a breakfast buffet, and an overnight stay in a deluxe room.

Talking Stick Resort

Talking Stick Resort in Scottsdale is offering guests a chance to purchase their resort stay and game tickets all at once. After selection dates of arrival and departure and room preference, you have the option to add game tickets, Dugout Reserve or Infield Box to enjoy your favorite teams.

Talking Stick also offers a variety of restaurants and buffets, spas, entertainment, golf, and gaming. For more information, visit <http://www.talkingstickresort.com/spring-training.aspx>.

Fairmont Scottsdale Princess

The Scottsdale Princess is offering their Sip, Savor & Swing Package that includes one overnight stay and $100 towards any of the resort's dining options or Willow Stream Spa. Guests have the opportunity to enjoy a Spring Training game, spend the day golfing, or indulge at the spa.
