

Mirabel Golf Club Ranks In Top 100

Written by Arizona Foothills Magazine

Mirabel, Scottsdale's premier private golf club, has been ranked in the top 100 of Golfweek's 2014 list of Best Residential Courses. The ranking further solidifies Mirabel as one of the most honored private clubs in Arizona with awards from AZ Golf Insider Magazine, BoardRoom Magazine, Golf Magazine, Golf Digest, Arizona Foothills and The Arizona Republic.

Ranked 76th Best Residential Course by Golfweek, Mirabel's Tom Fazio designed 7,147 yard course plays to a par-71 and is suitable for golfers of all levels. The thoughtful design includes generous landing areas, pristine greens and forward tee positions that create an experience both tough and enjoyable.

"There are more than 15,000 golf courses in the United States and it is truly an honor to be recognized in Golfweek's top 100," said David Engram, Head Golf Pro at Mirabel. "We are proud of the services and amenities we offer, and this award helps show the entire golf community the type of high-caliber, luxury golf club experience that our members already enjoy."

In addition to top notch golf, the club boasts championship-caliber Har-Tru clay tennis courts and comprehensive tennis courses, multi-sport fitness facilities and extensive health and wellness programs. Members are also granted exclusive access to the 37,000 square-foot, Frank Lloyd Wright inspired, Desert Lodge Clubhouse. The clubhouse offers exceptional fine and casual dining, full service medspa and social activities year round.

The private, gated community which surrounds the golf club consists of 348 homesites offering both luxury homes and custom lots. Mirabel is governed by a Community Association whose Board of Directors is made up of homeowners. Under its direction, Mirabel has remained financially secure and is currently debt free with no foreclosure properties or distressed homes in the community.

The North Scottsdale club offers both golf and social memberships and property ownership is not required for membership, but availability is limited.
