Drop It Like It's Hot

I used to think iPhone cases were for weenies. Well, I still kind of think they're for weenies.

But I was forced to get one when I dropped and shattered my second iPhone in a year and had to pay a grip to get it refurbished. Steve Jobs is a man of many secrets, but I'll never really understand why he thought a glass phone was a good idea.

Anyway, of all the dorky cases on the planet, Kate Spade's Diagonal Stripe iPhone 4 Case one is by far the least dorky. It's slightly bulkier than the thinner options, but it has gold ribbons on it! It's almost like a fashion accessory, itself. I have a polka dotted version, and love. it.

It's saved my [gl]ass on numerous occasions.
