

Super Bowl Sunday- Where to Watch the Game in Tucson

Written by AZFoothills.com

Tuesday, 31 January 2012 21:01

With Super Bowl Sunday right around the corner, it is time to start making plans. Start by checking out one of the top five Tucson sports bars perfect for eating well, drinking lots and cheering loud.

World Sports Grille

Twenty-five high-definition, flat panel televisions are carefully placed around the venue for your sports watching pleasure. Send the kids to play the more than 50 interactive games ranging from driving and sports games to classic arcade games while adults watch the game and enjoy some of the more than 75 international beers and cocktails offered at the bar.

www.worldsportsgrille.com.

Sam Hughes' Place Championship Dining

With $2.50 Budweiser aluminum pints, $4 Bacardi flavors, and a tasty American menu, Sam Hughes' Place is the place to be for Super Bowl Sunday. The 72-foot bar and 29 plasma screen TV's add life to the sophisticated yet relaxing championship restaurant.

www.championshipdining.com.

Buffalo Wild Wings Grill & Bar

Experience the thrill and excitement of the Super Bowl at the ultimate sports bar: Buffalo Wild Wings. With HD televisions covering the walls, take out deals and shareable wing and appetizer platters, you can't go wrong.

www.buffalowildwings.com.

Super Bowl Sunday- Where to Watch the Game in Tucson

Written by AZFoothills.com

Tuesday, 31 January 2012 21:01

Fox and Hound

Imagine biting into a hot, fresh burger or snacking on some savory wings while toasting your team's touchdown with friends. This image can be reality at Fox and Hound, the perfect place for sports, spirits and fun.

www.foxandhound.com.

Skybox Restaurant & Bar

Tucson's very own luxury sports and entertainment restaurant, Skybox boasts superb views of the Tucson skyline and plenty of TV's for the big game. With a contemporary American menu featuring anything from steaks to sandwiches, Skybox will add class to your NFL Sunday.

www.skyboxrestaurant.com.