

Top Tucson Golf Courses

Written by Ashley Pearlstein

This week has marked the beginning of Tucson's beautiful, 80-degree weather, perfect for outdoor activities. Soak in the sunny rays and relax with a day of golf at one of these top Tucson courses.

Omni Resort Tucson

Complete with two separate courses, Omni Resort Tucson has enough golf space and equipment to go around. The Sonoran Course, equipped with two lakes and 69 strategically placed bunkers, is a desert course. The Catalina Course has been host to over 30 PGA Tour events, features 8 lakes, and 80 well-placed bunkers. Book a reservation today and enjoy all that Omni has to offer.

The Ritz-Carlton Dove Mountain

Home of the Accenture Match Play Championship, the Ritz-Carlton course is a signature design by Jack Nicklaus. Featuring 27 holes, ranging in difficulty and design, the course is the perfect place for experienced golfers to enjoy Arizona's sunny weather. Surrounded by the Tortolita Mountain Range, and blended into the natural desert setting, the course is as beautiful as it is unique.

Arizona National Golf Club

Nestled in the foothills of the Santa Catalina Mountains, the Arizona National Golf Club provides some of the Sonoran Desert's best golf. Aiming at testing the abilities of skilled golfers, the course features rugged, natural terrain and typical golf-in-the-desert challenges. Golfers who are up to the challenge will be able to golf in some of the most majestic, panoramic scenery that Arizona has to offer.
