NO NEED TO GOOGLE IT—JUST VISIT AZFOOTHILLS.COM!

Living in the Valley for more than 18 years, things continue to only get better. There is so much information (I'm talking good, original news) you may not have heard, instead of reports about the unemployment crisis, housing stats and the BP oil leak. Here's some of the fun things you can learn on AZFoothills.com:

- * Which resort has the tallest waterslide in Arizona?
- * Who is running for Congress in the 3rd District race?
- * Where can you take your pup to dine with you?
- * Which resorts are perfect for that girlfriend's weekend or a romantic getaway?
- * Who are the most influential people in the Valley?
- * Where have all the Valley residents gone this summer?
- * What does Kathy Shayna Shocket have to share with us every Tuesday?
- * How can you get invited to a private screening of the new movie starring Tom Cruise and Cameron Diaz?
- * What to wear and not-to-wear this summer?
- * What are the best deals at local resorts this summer?
- * Which swimsuits fit your body type?
- * Who was at the pool this weekend and what were they wearing?
- * Which local firm won an $80 million account with hard work?
- * Where is the best dealer to test drive the new ML450 Mercedes?
- * Did you know about the private Barneys sale last month?

On AZFoothills.com, our readers also get to view the top travel guide for the Barrett-Jackson Newport Beach auction, must-try restaurants, the best places to watch the World Cup locally, interviews with Valley chefs, pets that need a place to live as well as see a complete listing of local charities and the official new AFM Black Book. And this summer, you can cast your vote for more than 200 beautiful people who are vying for the Face of Foothills title.

AZFoothills.com is the market leader when it comes to the good things in life. We feature the people, places and things that make the Valley the best place to live each and every day. I encourage you to visit our site, AZFoothills.com, to find exactly what you're looking for. We understand you and what you want.

In this issue, we celebrate Twitter and spotlight a great group of people you may want to follow—we do.

Enjoy!
