

Hotel Hanford in Orange County Unveils Peter Pan Packages

Written by Elizabeth O'Malley

Wednesday, 01 December 2010 14:59 - Last Updated Wednesday, 01 December 2010 15:13

The best gift of all is much-needed family-bonding time. Just in time for the holidays, Hotel Hanford in Orange County will unveil its Peter Pan packages.

Consumer demand has prompted the extension of the final West Coast performance of the Peter Pan stage play at the Orange County Performing Arts Center. The show will now continue through Jan. 2, offering Valley dwellers the chance to head west and enjoy some Tinkerbell and Captain Hook. Hotel Hanford, located in sunny Costa Mesa, Calif., is the official sponsor for the magical rendition and is offering package deals for guests to provide plenty of opportunity for family time.

Give the Gift of Neverland

This package starts at $299 and is available Friday through Sunday nights. Included in the package is tickets to the show as well as a self-serve candy counter (for your little one's sweet tooth), an official poster signed by the cast, Peter Pan memorabilia and complimentary overnight parking and shuttle to and from the theater. To quench your thirst, complimentary Peter Pan kid- or adult-friendly cocktails are served before or after the show.

Peter Pan Rooms

Prices for Peter Pan Rooms start at $129, and are available nightly with a reservation. Rooms include complimentary overnight hotel parking and theatre shuttle, a pre- or post-show happy hour and a complimentary Peter Pan commemorative gift.

Get Hooked Pre-Theater Dinner Package

Dine pre-show in their new Savoy Restaurant and Lounge. Dinners are priced at $35 per person and available Tuesday through Sundays. The pricing includes parking and theater shuttle, a three-course prix fixe menu in Savoy Restaurant and Lounge and a post-show happy hour with Peter Pan cocktails. Dinner reservations are required and seating begins at 5:00 p.m.

To make reservations for all of the Official Hotel Partner Peter Pan Packages at The Hanford Hotel, call 714.557.3000 and visit www.thehotelhanford.com/peterpan.