It is the closet beach to Tucson and Phoenix, a short 4 hour drive, and is the focal point for tourists staying in Rocky Point. From sunrise to sunset you'll find it all on Sandy Beach.

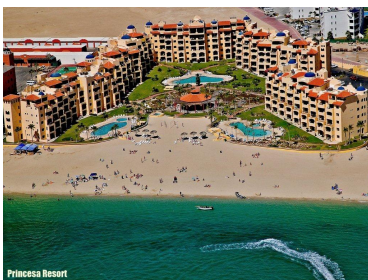

The investment opportunities in the condominium developments are exceptional today in our turning market.

Some of the developments include:

La Princesa Resort – built specifically for natural scenery and architectural beauty in mind from the top floor you can see across the Sea of Cortez to the Penasco lighthouse and beyond. From the ground floor Rocky Point's beautiful white sands beach is only a few steps away. With 220 condos in a half circle facing the sea La Princesa is a jewel by the sea. Trivia: La Princesa was the first resort in Rocky Point to include underground utilities.

Sonoran Spa – when the tide comes in you can sit in the kitchen of your condo and not even see the beach. Reaching out for as far as you can see is the breath taking beautiful blue ocean. Sonoran Spa offers its own on-site luxurious day spa, Sonoran Grill restaurant and Giuseppe's Espresso Bar. Plus you're within walking distance to Chungo's Bar with live music on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights. Once at Sonoran Spa you have everything at your fingertips.

Puerta Privada (meaning “private door”) is the only non rental condominium development in Rocky Point. The developer says their success is due to experience, reputation and a 17 year track record in Puerto Penasco. Puerta Privada is a private community consisting of two towers with 96 condos each that sit directly parallel to the ocean. You experience 180’ breath taking ocean front views. Amenities include a private club house, state of the art fitness center, game room, lighted tennis court, basketball court, Jacuzzis, lap pool as well as a family fun pool and pet park. Puerta Privada is more than a beach front condo it’s a “lifestyle” you’ll always desire returning to any time of year.

Bella Sirena – offers exotic landscaping and negative edged pools overlooking the crystal blue ocean. It boasts 5 towers of ocean view condos, beach front homes and 12 exceptionally designed villas. Bella Sirena has old world charm with its hand laid cobble stone streets, quality and elegance in its décor and fun and relaxation at its popular swim up bar and restaurant. On-site event planner, Cathy Poturalski, is known for her talent to create an affair you’ll remember forever.
