

Arizona Commemorative Air Force Museum: A Great Visit for Holiday Guests

Written by Arizona Foothills Magazine

Thursday, 29 November 2018 00:00 - Last Updated Thursday, 29 November 2018 16:37

Looking for a unique place to take your houseguests during the holiday? Bring them to the Arizona Commemorative Air Force Museum, one of Phoenix's top-rated attractions.

Our museum is home to authentic war artifacts and hundreds of exhibits that chronicle the stories of people who rose to meet extraordinary challenges, including our newest exhibit about WWI. Our friendly, knowledgeable docents will bring to life the tales of combat heroes like the Tuskegee Airmen and Women Air Service Pilots who overcame tremendous obstacles to serve our country.

Watch aircraft mechanics at work and then climb aboard one of the rarest B-17 Bombers in the world, "Sentimental Journey," or better yet, book a once-in-a-lifetime ride on any of our flying WWII airplanes or give a ride as a gift. Gift Certificates available at <https://www.azcaf.org/fly-with-us/gift-certificates/>.

Celebrate the start of the holiday season by bringing your kids to our Museum and welcome Santa from the North Pole as he arrives on Saturday, December 1st. For details and to learn about more events visit us at www.AZCAF.org. You can also buy tickets to the museum in advance along with purchasing warbird rides and shop in our one-of-a-kind online PX gift store.

We're an educational non-profit 501(c)3 organization and rely on donations to fulfill our mission of honoring the ingenuity, craftsmanship, and steely resolve of machines and humans alike who saved the world in the deadliest wars of all time.

Arizona Commemorative Air Force Museum: A Great Visit for Holiday Guests

Written by Arizona Foothills Magazine

Thursday, 29 November 2018 00:00 - Last Updated Thursday, 29 November 2018 16:37

