It's that time of year again to celebrate the man who's been to every baseball game, dance recital and parent-teacher conference. Show your dad how much you care June 17 with our Father's Day gift guide featuring something for every taste and type.

The Golfer: If your dad spends his weekends on the green, he's sure to love the Approach S1 watch from Garmin. This state-of-the-art technology combines a high-sensitivity GPS receiver with a lightweight, flexible sport watch. It's preloaded with more than 18,000 United States and Canada golf courses to measure not only individual shot distances but also track how far you walk on the course. Approach S1 is golf's first full-featured sports watch and golf GPS in one.

The Music Lover: If your dad is a real music enthusiast, he'll love the new BeatsPro by Dr. Dre headphones. These high-tech headphones provide a clean sound without using amplification or noise cancellation circuitry, which can interfere with the listening experience. Dual input/output headphone ports let you share mixes, while the washable ear cups give you superior sound insulation, maximum comfort, and minimum ear fatigue.
