

Shopping List- Jumping for Joy! Hot Jumpsuits

Written by Written by Claire Perkins

Monday, 06 July 2009 18:24 - Last Updated Tuesday, 07 July 2009 17:04

Jumpsuits can be awfully scary. They have a reputation of riding up unflatteringly and fitting awkwardly, so they've never quite been universally accepted. Plus, it's just too easy to fall back on our favorite black trousers or like-a-glove Paige jeans and a tried-and-true top.

But all of a sudden! Jumpsuits are everywhere, and it seems designers and fashion labels have finally gotten it right. These comfortable, versatile options can flatter any body and be personalized with accessories and jewelry to fit a variety of occasions. Plus, they make planning outfits a breeze and are easy to pack.

We don't know about you, but we're jumping for joy.

Cutout Tuxedo Jumpsuit, $1,650

If anybody can make a jumpsuit sophisticated, it's Fendi. This Italian Wool one-piece features soft pleats, a skinny leg and a chic racerback. We like with sexy heels for a cocktail party- who says you need to wear a dress? Saks Fifth Avenue.

Rena Romper, $165

Dolce Vita has comfy casual down to a science. This hot pink silk romper can be dressed up or down, depending on your mood. Pair with flats, a cardigan and hobo for travel, or a clutch, studded belt and booties for a night on the town. Shopbop.

Shopping List- Jumping for Joy! Hot Jumpsuits

Written by Written by Claire Perkins

Monday, 06 July 2009 18:24 - Last Updated Tuesday, 07 July 2009 17:04

Denim Jumpsuit, $325

No, this Vince denim one-piece isn't meant for mechanics, it's for fashionable ladies. Worn styled like a regular button-down, this fashion-forward suit looks cool unbuttoned or buttoned-up, and features welt pockets, a side slash and rolled-up sleeves and pant legs. Saks Fifth Avenue.

Joey Romper, $253

It's impossible to not like (or look hot) in Kimono sleeves and silk. Sign us up for this crossover Dolce Vita jumpsuit! Also available in yellow and white, this comfy and chic set has gathered sleeves, hip pockets and an elastic waist. It's all that's missing from your chic summer wardrobe. Shopbop.

Shopping List- Jumping for Joy! Hot Jumpsuits

Written by Written by Claire Perkins

Monday, 06 July 2009 18:24 - Last Updated Tuesday, 07 July 2009 17:04

Floral Print Playsuit, $470

Bet you thought you'd passed your "playsuit" days, huh? Anna Sui has other ideas for you. And although it may go against all your instincts, this little suit is meant to be worn out during the day, not to bed at night. The 100% silk suit, complete with red buttons and a drawstring waist, are so cute it's stupid. Net-A-Porter.

Garbardine Jumpsuit, $535

We can't remember the last time we felt compelled to hop on the back of a motorcycle, but one look at this MCQ jumpsuit and we're craving the open highway. This wool and polyester mix suit almost looks like two pieces and is uber-versatile. Just hop off your bike and grap a studded clutch- you're ready to party. Net-A-Porter.

Brest Woven Jumpsuit, $895

It's hard to resist that signature Missoni print. This one-piece woven jumpsuit is a lot of a fairly busy print, but it still manages to look neutral. We love the way the rayon suit is styled here, with chunky jewelry and a tan clutch. Ibizan perfection. Net-A-Porter.

Shopping List- Jumping for Joy! Hot Jumpsuits

Written by Written by Claire Perkins

Monday, 06 July 2009 18:24 - Last Updated Tuesday, 07 July 2009 17:04

Wide-Leg Vest Jumpsuit, $189

We've tried this BCBG Max Azria suit on, and it is pure and utter Charlie's Angel's perfection. Superlong pant legs, a fitted, plunging vest and tailored fit make for a timeless and versatile addition to your wardrobe. BCBG.

Strapless Jumpsuit, $396

We're on the hunt for the perfect jumpsuit- literally. Doesn't this Alice + Olivia white cotton jumpsuit look made for an African Safari? The contrasting belt, oversize patch pockets and superwide pant legs are what summertime glamour are all about. Saks.