They say the best things come in small packages. But a private chef or a built-to-order rally fighter can't very well be squeezed into a little gift bag. From gorgeous baubles and one-of-a-kind experiences to gifts that actually give back to local or worldwide communities, check out these luxury gifts that would make even Scrooge smile.

1 Sip in Style

Make the Dapper Dan in your life the ultimate entertainer with the Whisky and Cards Set. The set features nine soapstones designed to chill the beverage without diluting it; four shallow sipping glasses; a handsome dark-wood serving tray; and a helpful book dedicated to hundreds of card games. $124. www.oliveandcocoa.com.

2 Pedal the Metal

Sin City's all-inclusive Dream Racing Experience: Full Throttle is the supreme getaway for car enthusiasts. The package is highlighted by round-trip transportation to and from the Las Vegas Motor Speedway via private helicopter, 36 laps around the track in a Ferrari and time with one of Dream Racing's founders, Enrico Bertaglia and Adriano de Micheli. (They also happen to be celebrated former professional racers.) $5,500. www.dreamracing.com.

3 Road Warrior

Chandler-based Local Motors gives auto enthusiasts the once-in-a-lifetime chance to build his own custom Rally Fighter. (Only 2,000 will be made.) In addition to a completely custom on-road/off-road vehicle, customers will spend six nights at a local hotel (plus meals) and six days in the factory with the build team. Base price starts at $74,900. www.localmotors.com; www.rallyfighter.com.

4 Cuff Candy

Diamonds aren't just a girl's best friend. This gent's Rolex Platinum Pearlmaster Day-Date Watch has a unique meteorite diamond dial and 40 individual diamonds in the surrounding bezel. $100,550. Hamra Jewelers.

5 Tee-riffic

The golf lover in your life is counting down the days until the 2013 Waste Management Phoenix Open, taking place Jan. 28 to Feb. 3. Stick a few tickets for "The Greatest Show on Grass" in his stocking and he'll be seeing green (grass, of course) Christmas morning. Prices start at $25. www.wmphenixopen.com.
