My Sister's Closet (pictured) recently celebrated 25 years in the Valley. Founded by Ann Siner, Jenny Siner and Tess Loo, the shop, which has four Valley locations, blows away devoted shoppers by offering top brands at up to 90 percent off (the shop specializes in designer clothing, handbags, shoes, hats, accessories, jewelry and much more). Best of all, Loo and the Siner sisters have donated more than 30 percent of their proceeds to organizations every year, including the AZ Humane Society, Helping Animals Live On (HALO), Fresh Start, AZ Nature Conservatory, Southwest Wildlife Conversation Center, Defenders of Wildlife and many others.

Well Suited. Various Locations

Found next-door to its sister store, My Sister's Closet (except for its Chandler location), Well Suited is a men's resale boutique where gents can find everything from ties to sunglasses to designer suits (and just about everything in between) at 60 to 90 percent off retail price. Shop brand names like Hugo Boss, Versace, Prada and many more for the most fashion-forward head-to-toe looks.

Brought to you by the folks behind My Sister's Closet and Well Suited, My Sister's Attic recycles home furnishings at a fraction of its original price. From dishes and crystal to furniture to wall art, a stop by My Sister's Attic can furnish an entire place for less. Don't be shocked if you get a steal on a Pottery Barn, Kreiss, Crate & Barrel or Ethan Allen homegood; your houseguests will be none the wiser that you got a smokin' deal.
