

Phoenix Sports Bars to Watch the Big Games

Written by Written by Christine Whitton

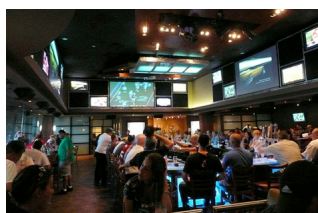

Wednesday, 13 January 2010 11:16 - Last Updated Thursday, 14 January 2010 13:01

After last weekend's Cardinals' highest scoring NFC win over the Green Bay Packers, many fans are chomping at the bit to see this weekend's faceoff against the New Orleans Saints. So, if you're wondering where the desert dwellers will be parking it come Saturday, here's a few of their favorite hot spots.

Click the next button below to read on.

FOX Sports Grill at the Promenade

Owned by the Fox Sports Network, this casually chic restaurant boasts a fun environment when it comes to any kind of game. Here's the rundown: aside from the grill's restaurant-style setup in the center, the perimeter provides cushy couches just like home and finely crafted billiard tables for your own post-show entertainment. The Cardinals game, which is aired on Fox 10, will be show on large-scale projection screens guaranteed to be unobstructed. And the menu, which recently added a taste of regional cuisine, will offer the ultimate in bar food.

16203 N. Scottsdale Road
Scottsdale, AZ 85254
480.368.0369

Goldie's Neighborhood Sports Café

Rooting for Big Red? Then this family-friendly establishment provides the perfect place to let loose and enjoy the weekend's jam-packed NFL Divisional lineup. Game-goers, bring your appetite as the menu is loaded with tempting finger foods like nachos, green chili and honey-jalapeno chicken rolls and quesadillas. Yup, game on!

10135 E. Via Linda
Scottsdale, AZ 85258
480.451.6269

Zipps Sports Grill

Located in the heart of Downtown Scottsdale, Zipps Camelback is the smallest of all Zipps locations and the busiest. Surrounded by flat-panel televisions, wide-range LCD and plasmas, and a large projection screen, there's really no bad seat in the house. Start your celebratory win with beer-battered onion rings before chowing down on several savory sandwiches and salads. And drinks—well, they're a given.

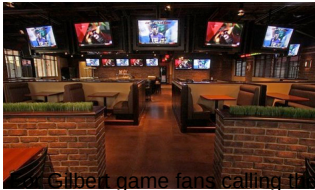

Phoenix Sports Bars to Watch the Big Games

Written by Christine Whitton

Wednesday, 13 January 2010 11:16 - Last Updated Thursday, 14 January 2010 13:01

7551 E. Camelback Road
Scottsdale, AZ 85251

Blue 32 Sports Grill

Gilbert game fans calling the shots, this new Valley favorite (there's also a Scottsdale location in the works) is sporting 28 flat-screen televisions and cooking up everything from spicy deep-fried chicken wings to juicy filet mignon. In the area? Drop by.

1524 E. Williams Field Road
Gilbert, AZ 85295
480.963.0032

Upper Deck Sports Grill

There is no need to wake up early this weekend since the most talked about game doesn't air till 2:30 p.m. And with lunch now wide open, why not start out just a bit early? Come early and grab the best seat in the house while catching up with friends over good food and refreshing drinks before joining the loudest cheering squad this side of Scottsdale.

4224 N. Craftsman Court
Scottsdale, AZ 85251
480.941.9333