September 1, 2009 (Scottsdale, Ariz.)- Go big or go home! After nearly 14 years as the leading luxury lifestyle publication in the Arizona marketplace, Arizona Foothills Magazine charges into Fall 2009 with a new look and bigger-than-ever size in its September Best Places to Live issue.

Parent company Media That Deelivers, Inc. has paired the publication's breathtaking fashion spreads, noteworthy editorial and luxurious advertisements with wider dimensions and thicker, glossier pages for the ultimate reader experience.

Every year in the fall Arizona Foothills Magazine updates it's circulation and targeted neighborhoods. This September, Media That Deelivers increased coverage in Arcadia and Biltmore areas and decreased outlying neighborhoods where home values and household income have decreased. AFM still reaches the most affluent homes across the Valley, rooms at top luxury resorts and is on newsstands at Barnes and Noble and Border's bookstores.

"We are so excited this September because we have really proven ourselves as an industry leader," says President and Publisher Michael Dee, "I can see it in the pages of our magazine and the unbelievable traffic we're seeing on AZFoothills.com."
