August, 2008 (Scottsdale, Ariz.)— Media That Deelivers, Inc., has just extended its agreement with the Sheraton Wild Horse Pass Resort and Gila River Indian Community to produce their annual custom publication for a second year. This rounds out another successful year of custom publication renewals, as all current resort clients have extended their agreements.

In the heart of the Gila River Indian Community, the 500-room, Four Diamond Sheraton Wild Horse Pass Resort is surrounded by nature, giving visitors a real Arizona escape. But despite its wild locale, there's plenty to do there: casinos, outdoor activities and spa life are just a few of the things businesses and leisure visitors enjoy there. Media that Deelivers is proud to cover local happenings in the community's publication, and advertisers have seen huge response since the magazine's conception, likely due to its exclusivity in each room, in the Bondurant racing school, Rawhide and Gila River casinos.

"The fact that our custom publications have all been renewed is truly a testament to the product we've created," says Director of Custom Publications Hayley Gudat. "This comes right on the tails of our Westin Kierland renewal, and we can't wait to get started on the 2009 issues."
