Tusconan foodies rejoice, stellar cuisine and culinary creations are on the way from Petite Pea Catering and Fine Foods.

If you haven't heard of Petite Pea Catering, likely someone you know has. Fans of Petite Pea Catering's signature dishes will soon be able to cure their cravings on demand when Petite Pea Catering & Fine Foods To-Go Market opens its doors on Tuesday, October 26th. The market is located at 1012 E 6th Street and will be open Monday through Saturday from 7am to 7pm.

For owner Jale Tweedy, it is the culmination of years of planning. "This has been a dream of mine ever since we started Petite Pea Catering & Fine Foods. Our clients have been so supportive and encouraging - it's a wonderful feeling to have reached this point in our growth."

The new market will offer a selection of freshly made grab-and-go items all day, including Petite Pea signature pastries (yes that means those fabulous Red Velvet Cupcakes), special breakfast items like mini quiches, house made granola, fresh fruit, juices and more from 7am to 10:30am, and then heartier lunch and dinner fare throughout the day from 11am to 7pm—including the very popular Parmesan Crusted Chicken, lush green salads, wraps, vegetarian selections and daily specials.

Jale's signature Balsamic Dressing will also be available by the bottle for those whose cravings include this elixir of the gods. Beverages include house made Vanilla Lemonade, Jamaica (hibiscus tea), bottled water and sodas.

For fans of the catering side, fret not, Petite Pea Catering will continue to offer full service catering and unique floral arrangements for all occasions – from intimate dinners at home to full scale celebrations, corporate luncheons and the list goes on.
