

Oscar Night at Fox Tucson Theatre

Written by Ashley Pearlstein

Wednesday, 15 February 2012 10:20 - Last Updated Wednesday, 15 February 2012 10:26

Don't just watch the Oscars at home; experience the only Oscar event in Tucson that is officially sanctioned by the Academy of Motion Picture

Arts and Sciences. The red carpet event takes place at the Fox Tucson Theatre on Sunday, Feb. 26.

Guests will be treated like celebrities as they walk the "red carpet," and are encouraged to dress to impress for the Oscars. Those who dress up can win one of four "Foxy Awards" that will be presented later in the evening: Best Dressed Male, Best Dressed Female, Best Hair, and Best Accessories. Aside from the fun of playing celebrity, guests will also enjoy a silent auction, celebrity fashion show, a "predict the winner" contest and commercial-free Oscar entertainment.

For VIP ticket holders, food from some of downtown Tucson's best restaurants will be provided. Agustin Brasserie, 47 Scott, Café a la C'Art, Downtown Kitchen & Cocktails, HUB, and V Fine Thai will all be featured. VIP ticket holders also gain access to cozy VIP lounge areas, receive drink tickets, and experience a Champagne toast, priority seating, dessert, and coffee.

KGUN Anchor and reporter, Steve Nunez, MixFM radio personality Mrs. Grant and local talent Tamara Mack will host the show, promising a classy and enjoyable Oscar evening.

Red Carpet arrivals begin at 5 p.m. and the Academy Awards Telecast begins at 6:30 p.m. VIP tickets are $125 per person, while general admission tickets are $25 per person. Tickets can be purchased online at www.foxtucsontheatre.com, at the box office or by phoning 520.547.3040. Tickets to the thrilling event are sure to go quickly, so be sure to reserve your ticket as soon as possible.