

Five Popular Hangouts for UA Students

Written by Ashley Pearlstein

Friday, 27 April 2012 08:05 - Last Updated Friday, 27 April 2012 08:17

University of Arizona students take over Tucson every Thursday, Friday, and Saturday night. For the newly 21, Tucson's top party places can be difficult to figure out. Here are a list of places where you are sure to find UA students, plenty of drinks, and an atmosphere that will get you energized and ready for the night.

The Auld Dubliner

The Auld Dubliner features authentic Irish eats, beers, and spirits. A popular place for students to relax after a long week of classes, the bar is located on University Boulevard. Nicknamed "the Dub," by students and locals, this Irish pub is a great place for hanging out with friends.

www.aulddublinertucson.com

Sky Bar

Located on Fourth Avenue, Sky Bar is a 100 percent solar powered bar. They have live music, from bands to DJs, playing to set the tone of the night. The Sky Bar has its very own telescope where guests can see the stars, and is connected to Brooklyn Pizza so guests can order food while relaxing at the bar.

www.skybartucson.com

Bison Witches

With a wide variety of domestic, imported, and microbrew beers, Bison Witches is a Tucson favorite for students to grab a beer with friends. The Tucson hotspot, located on Fourth Avenue, also features a diverse menu including snack foods like chips and salsa, sandwiches, salads, and more.

www.bisonwitches.com

Zen Rock

Zen Rock is an upscale, urban nightclub that prides itself on its edgy, underground vibe. The club features two levels of dance floors, bottle service, upstairs seating with a reservation, and a variety of delicious drinks. The dimly lit, eclectic club is great for a more mature crowd.

www.zenrocktucson.com

Sapphire Lounge

Sapphire Lounge has a cool, eclectic atmosphere, dimly lit with blue lights. The Lounge features three levels of party ambiance, including a level for mingling, a level for dancing, and a lounge on the top floor that overlooks the Tucson skyline. Guests at Sapphire can enjoy an evening of

Five Popular Hangouts for UA Students

Written by Ashley Pearlstein

Friday, 27 April 2012 08:05 - Last Updated Friday, 27 April 2012 08:17 dancing or of relaxing with friends.

www.sapphireucson.com.