Fashion's Night Out Comes to Tucson's La Encantada

We may be thousands of miles further and many degrees warmer, but that doesn't mean that we can't (and don't) rock our fashion! On Thursday, September 6th, starting at 6pm, Tucson's upscale shopping destination La Encantada and presenting sponsor, Volvo of Tucson, will celebrate "Fashion's Night Out." Participating retailers from BCBG to Brooke's Brother's will offer in-store specials, while light bites from buzz-worthy Agustin Brasserie are served in the outdoor courtyard. Wondering what's on deck for fall? Sip a glass during the complimentary wine tasting and get the inside track from UofA's Norton School as they forecast upcoming trends, all set to the smooth spins of DJ PCParty. Need to beat the heat and take a break? Try cocktails from Blanco, Armitage or the famed Lychee martini from Ra Sushi. All will be offering drink specials that evening.

Keeping with the spirit of the evening, fashion show producer Paula Taylor has chosen Fashion's Night Out as the perfect catwalk on which to launch her new book, "How to Produce a Fashion Show from A to Z." Proving that a picture is indeed worth a thousand words, four interactive fashion exhibits will depict chapters from her book, as Paula personally signs copies for guests.
