The JW Marriott Starr Pass Resort and Spa is the ideal place to vacation, focus on health and wellness, and spend time with family or friends. The resort is also gearing up for the holidays and offering special deals for holiday guests.

This weekend, December 14-16, the resort will be hosting two full days of holiday cheer, complete with Christmas performances and activities. The fun-filled holiday weekend provides a perfect getaway for the whole family.

Activities include a Fast Pass to all Winter Wonderland activities, craft making at Santa's workshop, pictures with Santa Claus, Christmas music performances, snow sledding, and breakfast with Santa on December 15.

Winter Wonderland packages also include evening elf tuck in and a $100 daily resort credit. Packages start at just $249 per room per night. The resort fee of $25 applies to the package and includes in room high speed Internet access, self parking, a guided morning hike, daily fitness activities, 15 percent discount in resort shops, unlimited use of the driving range, and free dinner for children 12 and under at the Signature Grill.

The $100 resort credit is part of a limited time offer featured by the JW Marriott Starr Pass Resort. Guests who book a consecutive two-night stay by December 15 for a vacation now through January 31 will receive the credit.

Visit the JW Marriott's website for more information about special packages including a Family Fling and Swing Package, an Escape for Two, and unlimited golfing packages.
