

Tucson Turns WICKED

Written by Ashley Pearlstein

Tuesday, 08 January 2013 00:06 -

Tucson locals and visitors alike are sure to remember WICKED's last tour in Tucson. The constant sold-out status of the show proved that WICKED was a "Popular" Tucson pick. Now, the crowd-pleasing WICKED is back.

As winner of 35 major awards including a Grammy and three Tony Awards, WICKED is Broadway's biggest blockbuster. The new age, modern musical, set around the untold story of the witches of Oz, attracts audiences of all ages, interests and genders. The show has been marked as a cultural phenomenon and is a definite crowd favorite.

The play takes place before Dorothy leaves Kansas for Munchkinland when two girls meet in the land of Oz. One, born with green skin, is intelligent yet misunderstood. The other—a beautiful blonde socialite—is well liked and popular. The musical follows the story of the two girls becoming the Wicked Witch of the West and Glinda the Good in the ever-popular Wizard of Oz.

The fun, upbeat musical will grace the stage of the Tucson Music Hall beginning on March 20 for a limited three-week engagement. Those who could not get tickets during WICKED's last tour should know to snag them while they last! Tickets are on sale now.

The show, running from March 20 through April 7, is presented by Broadway in Tucson. Bring along a friend for a laugh or your partner for a unique date and get tickets now!

<http://www.ticketmaster.com/venueartist/205070/873966?brand=broadwaytucson>.