Canyon Ranch, a luxurious resort in Tucson that specializes in healthy pleasures and stress relief, is now featuring EJH Brand Luxe Candle Collection at The Canyon Ranch Store. The hand-poured, all natural coconut wax candles are unlike any other brand.

The candles are fragranced with 100 percent pure essential oils. The Luxe Collection is much like the EJH Branch Signature Candle Collection in their all-natural ingredients. The Luxe Collection, however, features new designs and delicious fresh fragrances. The new collection also offers a smaller size of 6.5 ounces.

The candles are all hand-made in Los Angeles, California and shipped to Canyon Ranch for your purchase. Los Angeles artist and designer Elana Joelle Hendler is responsible for the creation of the new candle collection. Some of the delicious new Luxe Collection scents include Wild Ginger, Wisteria Lilac, Apple Blossom, Cool Peony, Amber Sandalwood, and Nectarine Mint.

The unique scents along with the neutral, cream color of the candle make them perfect gifts for anyone. The chic “eco-luxury” coconut candles are sure to transform any room they are placed in. The candles also feature unique artwork on both label and box, different for every scent, making them beautiful, matchless, and artsy.

While the candles can be purchased online for $32 a piece, the availability of the candles at The Canyon Ranch Store offers you the opportunity to feel and smell the candles before purchasing. In fact, why not make a weekend out of it and take some time to relax a little while you're at it? The Canyon Ranch resort is currently offering specials like the Family Spring Break package, which saves guests 20 percent on the all-inclusive rate per person, or the Enhanced Savings package for weeklong stays during the weeks of March 10 and March 24.

Guests can not only pick up the new, innovative candles that are sure to wow guests and renovate a home, but also relieve stress and truly relax in the calming environment of Canyon Ranch.
