

Summer at Acacia

Written by Ashley Pearlstein

Friday, 14 June 2013 15:04 -

Acacia Real Food & Cocktails is celebrating summer the right way, with great deals and delicious eats throughout the season. Chef Albert Hall is spicing up his usual menu with events and specials geared towards summer.

Start off the week with Taco Tuesdays at Acacia, where guests can choose 3 beef or fish “street” tacos and a draft beer for $5. For burger lovers, Acacia is presenting Burger Wednesdays where guests can eat the delicious Acacia Burger and all the fixings for only $6.

Wine lovers will rejoice at Half Priced Wine Thursdays where guests can enjoy any bottle of wine on the Acacia wine list for half off of the usual price. Grab the girls and enjoy a ladies night out this summer!

Every Friday through the summer, guests can enjoy Chef Hall’s delectable Paella for Two for just $30. Munch on the classic Spanish rice dish with a date or a friend and pair it with one of Acacia’s many tasty wines.

Acacia is also offering special events like a Prime Rib Dinner from 5 p.m. to close for Father’s Day. Dad can enjoy a hearty meal with the family for just $26 per person. The July 13 Slow Cooking on the Traeger “Texas Grill” class is another much-anticipated special event in which guests will experience instruction, lunch, recipes, adult beverages, and more for $55 per person. The class takes place from 9 a.m. to noon at Acacia. Reservations required.

With so many deals for almost every day of the week, summer is the perfect time to experience Acacia Real Food & Cocktails!

www.acaciatucson.com.