

Through purchases made from their gift guide, LDV is giving back!

From now, through the month of December, Owners of LDV Winery, Peggy Fiandaca, and Curt Dunham, will donate a portion of all sales from their holiday gift guide to Valley Youth Theatre.

Beyond wine and gift baskets, LDV Winery's holiday gift guide includes LDV merchandise, imported balsamic vinegar, and olive oil, and a selection of wine-centric books for purchase as well as membership information and details about some of LDV Winery's events, history, and more.

Valley Youth Theatre's Producing Artistic Director stated, "The LDV Winery team has supported our efforts for more than 25 years. Their love and support have been integral to our theatre and this fundraising campaign will further assist us as our young performers await the opportunity to perform, live, again."

Accessible via https://issuu.com/ldvwinery/docs/ldv_winery_catalog, the LDV gift guide offers an array of wine-stocked gift baskets, including the Grenache Celebration, featuring three bottles of LDV Winery Grenache varieties — the 2018 Rosei of Grenache, 2015 Grenache, and 2016 R.E.D. Rhone Red Blend — for $115 or the "Que Sera, Syrah!" package featuring a bottle of LDV Winery's 2015 Syrah and a bag of Super Chunk's signature caramel corn made with bacon and chocolate for $60.

LDV Winery can gift wrap individual wines but can also create a unique wine gift package to meet your specific needs for your clients or friends. Contact the LDV Winery wine concierge at 480-664-4822 to assist.

For last-minute gift-giving, a curbside pick-up at LDV's Old Town Scottsdale tasting room location can also be arranged by calling 480-664-4822. For more about LDV Winery, visit www.ldvwinery.com.
