On Thursday, Nov. 5, from 7 - 9 p.m., Platform Scottsdale, a Valley organization dedicated to giving women a platform to meet, mentor and connect, will be hosting their next signature event a Mercedes-Benz of Scottsdale. The Drive Your Destiny event will feature a driven presentation by Catherine Anaya. The event features live music by DJ Peabody, catered by Ciao Baby and a portion of the proceeds will benefit ComfyCozy's.

"Platform Scottsdale is all about connecting like-minded women throughout the Valley, and whether it's a stay-at-home Mom, a single lady on the go, or a trend setting businesswoman, every one of us has an inner Superwoman and this event is all about recognizing that in yourself and others," said Founding Member of Platform Scottsdale Christine Espinoza.

This event will be benefiting Amanda Hope Rainbow Angel's is a non-profit, support and educational organization designated by the IRS as a 501(c) 3 tax-deductible, tax-exempt organization. This organization was founded in 2013 in celebration of Amanda Hope's life that ended all too soon when she lost her battle against Leukemia. During her four year fight, Amanda Hope dreamed that one day she would design a fun clothing line (for kids in the same type of situation that would provide comfort and dignity during treatment.

Tickets for this event are $20 in advance and $25 at the door. Every attendee will receive a drink ticket good for a "Platform-tini" or glass of wine and raffle tickets will be available for two for $10 or five for $20 and include prizes from a variety of local businesses.
