Whether you're still searching for the perfect gift or you're trying to soak up every last bit of this holiday season, there are dozens of vintage markets, festive breakfasts and illuminating Christmas events that are taking over the Valley this weekend, Dec. 14 through Dec. 16.

Friday

Christmas Parade of Lights

Few things are as cozy as Wickenburg during the holiday season. And the Christmas Parade of Lights only helps to add to the allure of the charming city in Northern Arizona. Gather with your family along the quaint city streets as illuminating parade floats navigate through the crowds and light up the night. For more information on this free event, click here.

Sons of Serendip

The Chandler Center for the Arts welcomes the Sons of Serendip back for another unforgettable, crowd-pleasing performance following their sold out show last year. The group is set to perform a medley of iconic holiday songs. These finalists on "America's Got Talent" invite all to attend and to get in on the Christmas spirit with them. Admission tickets range between $32 and $38. For more information on this event, click here.
