

10 Things to Do This Weekend in Phoenix: Super Bowl Edition

Written by Kyley Warren

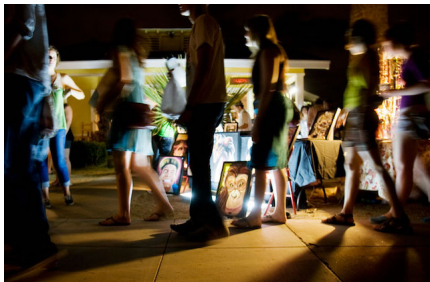

Wednesday, 30 January 2019 17:25 -

If there was ever a weekend to party late into the night and take advantage of $4 drink specials like there's no tomorrow, it's definitely Super Bowl weekend. We've compiled some of our favorite events and viewing parties that are set to take over the Valley this weekend, Feb. 1 through Feb. 3. And for all those who aren't geeking-out about this weekend's football game, we've got some events for you too!

Need to know where to get premium grub and drinks while enjoying the big game? Click here for our Valley favorites.

Friday

Artlink's First Fridays Art Walk

One of the nation's largest art walks will grace Downtown Phoenix and the Roosevelt Row Arts District this weekend, with a gorgeous showcase of local and international artists and vendors. For more information, click here.

Kelly Clarkson at Gila River Arena

American Idol sweetheart and pop princess, Kelly Clarkson, returns to the Valley this weekend. Clarkson will grace the stage and perform hit songs from her new album, as well as career-favorites like "Stronger" and "Already Gone." Ticket prices vary; the concert will be at Gila River Arena. For more information, click here.

10 Things to Do This Weekend in Phoenix: Super Bowl Edition

Written by Kyle Warren

Wednesday, 30 January 2019 17:25 -

Saturday

Waste Management Phoenix Open

A local and tourist-favorite event is one of Arizona's largest spectacles, with thousands upon thousands of people flocking to Scottsdale's greens to catch a glimpse of their favorite golfer nabbing a hole-in-one and maybe even a trophy. Admission tickets to the Waste Management Phoenix Open range from $40 to $50. For more information, click here.

Ahwatukee A'Fare

Think ritzy, glamorous, daring and totally reminiscent of a Gatsby-themed party. The Ahwatukee Chamber of Commerce Community Foundation is hosting this glorious ball and the spectacle is sure to feature everything to make your 20's-era-fantasies come true: Prohibition-era themed art, jazz, dance, drinks and bites. Admission tickets are $50 online and $60 at the door; the event will begin at 5 p.m. For more information, click here.

Phoenix Suns vs. Atlanta Hawks

With the reminder of the playoffs looming, the Phoenix Suns are still fighting for credibility within the league and for the chance to compete. Can Devin Booker and the Suns-newest playmaker, Kelly Oubre, steal a win from Damian Lillard and the vibrant, Portland Trail Blazers? Grab a few tickets and find out. Ticket prices vary; the game begins at 7 p.m. at Talking Stick Resort Arena. For more information, click here.

Sunday

10 Things to Do This Weekend in Phoenix: Super Bowl Edition

Written by Kyle Warren

Wednesday, 30 January 2019 17:25 -

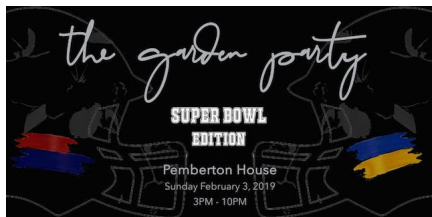

The Dreamweavers Canyon Big Game Party at Westin Kierland

With 300-sq.-ft. outdoor televisions, build-your-own nacho bars, special drinks, and games with prizes that include dinner at deseo, an Agave, The Arizona Spa treatment and more, the Westin Kierland Resort & Spa is hosting a game-day party that is as legendary as the Super Bowl game itself. Tickets for the Dreamweavers Canyon Big Game party are $60 plus tip and tax per person, and tables are seated communally based upon reservations. Doors open at 3:30 p.m. and reservations may be made by calling 480.624.1202. For more information, click here.

Jake's Unlimited

On Super Bowl Sunday, guests who purchase any of the four general admission packages including Noob, Rookie, Gamer and Pro will receive a free buffet admission for unlimited salads, pizza, salads, and desserts. Kids can enjoy unlimited rides and attractions, unlimited video games, unlimited laser tag, and more while adults can indulge in the free buffet admission and watch the Super Bowl VIP style with 50 55-in. television screens, two massive 144-in. TV's, a "High Score" dining room featuring stadium-style seating and TV's, and two full-service bars offering signature cocktails and beers on tap. A la carte menu items will be available as well including $15 wings, cocktails and draft beers. For more information, click here.

The Garden Party Series at the Sarah H. Pemberton House

The New Year means new events to fall in love with. One in particular is The Garden Party Series, which is presented by True North Studio and curated by local restaurateur, Grace Unger of the Tuck Shop. From 3 to 10 p.m., guests are invited to watch the Los Angeles Rams take on the New England Patriots on several big screen TVs that will be spread throughout the property. Prepare to enjoy beer, cocktails and barbecue eats. General admission is free, just requires an RSVP at the ticket link, and guests can purchase food and drinks a la carte. Hopeful attendees are also welcome to purchase an all-inclusive ticket for $50 per person that includes all-you-can-eat premium barbecue, two drink tickets and entertainment. For more information, click here.

10 Things to Do This Weekend in Phoenix: Super Bowl Edition

Written by Kyley Warren

Wednesday, 30 January 2019 17:25 -

The Big Game Viewing Party at The Casino Arizona Showroom

Settle in for a Super Bowl party, Casino Arizona-style. This Sunday, the favored hot spot among locals will be broadcasting the big game live across three large-screen TV's. Attendees can expect kickoff cash drawings, jersey giveaways and unbeatable food and drink specials. Admission is free; doors open at 3 p.m. - first come, first seated. For more information, click here.

"Pabst It To Me, I'm Open" Super Bowl Party at Crescent Ballroom

The big game will be projected on the venue's lounge screen and lounge TV. In an environment as fun and energetic as Crescent Ballroom, this is can't-miss party that is sure to last long past the game's ending. Doors open at 3 p.m. (seating is limited, so arrive early); kickoff is at 4:40 p.m. For more information on this event, click here.