Taking place on International Women's Day, the highly anticipated International Women's Summit 2019 comes to Phoenix on March 7 to March 10 at the Sheraton Grand Phoenix Hotel, a Celebrate Your Life event.

Guests are in for 4 days of discovering ways to live an inspired life, gain support from a like-minded community of women and exchange powerful life-changing ideas—all in one place. More than 1,000 attendees travel from all over the globe to attend this event—and it's happening right in our backyard in Phoenix.

For the 2019 program, it's like being on the set of the Oprah Winfrey show with a stellar lineup of keynote presenters that include Elizabeth Gilbert, bestselling author of "Eat Pray Love" (portrayed by Julia Roberts in the film version): Laverne Cox star of "Orange is the New Black": Glennon Doyle, bestselling author of "Love Warrior"; Cheryl Strayed, bestselling author of "Wild" (portrayed by Reese Witherspoon in the film version); Zainab Salbi, CEO of Women for Women International; Lisa Nichols of film "The Secret" and CEO of Motivating the Masses; Dr. Christiane Northrup, bestselling author of "Women's Bodies, Women's Wisdom"; and many more inspiring women.

"This was the most inspiring, uplifting and positive conference I have ever attended," says Lainey Haskin of Chicago, Ill., a past attendee. "I gained so much valuable insights for my life and career from the speakers, and from making new connections with other women. This is now my new yearly women's event for myself and my sisters!"

In addition to nine keynote presentations, guests will also enjoy two master class breakout sessions; a Summit Connection Corner for women to network and make new friends; a Summit Zen Zoe to chill out and reflect; a Saturday night dance party; delicious meals; exposure to nonprofit organizations that support women and children; unique vendors; a Summit bookstore and much more.
