Harkins Camelview at Fashion Square

Sit back and enjoy the luxurious lifestyle at Harkins Camelview at Fashion Square. Just under four years old, Harkins Camelview offers a new, state-of-the-art movie-going experience. Located in the elegant and ever-growing Scottsdale Fashion Square mall, this motion picture palace was a harmonious addition. The theater's gourmet snacks taste even better in its reclining leather chairs. You won't miss a beat thanks to complete digital sound and projection, about double the size of a normal movie screen. Ultimate lounge seating, premium gelato, self-serve ticket kiosks and thoughtful architecture are just a few of its many perks. Reserve your seats online through a theater map, or in the theater lobby. Tickets start at $8.50 depending on age group.

Open 365 days a year, Roadhouse Cinemas provides a delightful dine-in movie experience unlike any other. Calling all popcorn fanatics, this theater is the one for you. Roadhouse offers a unique selection of popcorn like its Glazed & Confused caramel-coated flavor, or the spicy jalapeno popcorn. 7.1 Dolby Digital surround sound livens the room as you transport into a magical movie wonderland. Roadhouse is also known for its specials like $6 for all shows on Tuesday. Ticket pricing begins as low as $3.71 for seniors and all other tickets are under $8.

Pollack Tempe Cinemas

Pollack Tempe Cinemas is a discount movie theater in which all tickets cost a mere $3.50! While tickets are quite affordable, the inside of the theater suggests otherwise as it gives access to a list of luxurious amenities. From new seating to digital movies and surround sound, Pollack Tempe Cinemas truly care about making your budgeted experience worthwhile. The snack selection contains Blue Bunny Ice Cream, as well as Hebrew National Hot Dogs. Did we mention the game room? Kiddos can keep the fun going after the movie thanks to Pollack's mini arcade.

iPic

Just when you thought it couldn't get any better, the newly remodeled iPic at the Scottsdale Quarter has raised the bar once again. Not only can you cuddle up with pillow and blanket inside of your private moving-watching pod, but now you can also enjoy a dining experience along with it. iPic has created a specialized menu which you can order from by simply pressing a button at your seat. Red velvet bread pudding and keto tandoori chicken skewers are just two of the many scrumptious offerings on the new menu. Guests can also coordinate a one-of-a-kind corporate event or birthday party at the theater by scheduling online or visiting iPic. Tickets start at $17 and an additional fee is also required.

Film Bar

Film Bar: Bar and Cinema in Phoenix is the perfect place to watch a movie, catch a concert or simply sip on your favorite brews. The independent theater offers a wide range of unique, indie documentaries and films to delight in. Film Bar doesn't look like your typical movie-watching venue. Its ambience and architecture exudes serene vibes with its Middle Eastern decor. Tamales are also a favorite of Film Bar goers as they are made fresh daily at The Tamale Store and sold for theater attendees to enjoy. Try Film Bar for an eccentric take on your typical movie date night. Tickets are $9.95 for general admission.

Since 1997, Alamo Drafthouse Cinema has been celebrating the glory of classic cinema and movie goers can't get enough. We're sure you have also noticed that Alamo is not only a cinema but also a drafthouse. From local craft brews to specially curated cocktails, there is no shortage of beverages at Alamo. To go along with your drink, order from the thematic menu made to complement certain flicks. Alamo has created a lifestyle revolving around the way that they appreciate films, and you'll certainly feel the love when visiting. Tickets start at $7.

Studio Movie Grill

Studio Movie Grill in Scottsdale has changed the way we watch movies in a theater. The in-house dining experience can be enjoyed during the previews, or anytime throughout the movie with the press of a button. With its American-style menu of munchies, there are countless items to choose from. From a half rack of ribs to chocolate beignets, Studio Movie Grill is seriously raising the stakes. Luxury recliners and a full-service bar are an additional bonus. Join in on the unparalleled experience with $6 tickets before noon, or regular tickets starting at $7.
