

Coffin & Trout and William Henry Studio to Debut New Line

Written by Arizona Foothills Magazine

Wednesday, 27 October 2010 08:41 - Last Updated Wednesday, 27 October 2010 10:37

A leader in jewelry design, Coffin & Trout has teamed up with William Henry Studio, which builds the finest tools possible, to create something truly unique and special. This exciting new line of pens, money clips, pocket knives and a new golf divot tool will make its debut to the public this Saturday, Oct. 30 from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. at Coffin & Trout in Chandler.

A representative from William Henry Studio will be on hand to answer questions and show off some of the unique items. For more event info click here!

The William Henry Studio is devoted to the vision of designing and building the finest tools possible. Since inception in 1997, it has established a new benchmark of excellence in luxury-grade functional art. Its distinctive creations offer unmatched performance as daily tools and are found among the finest collections in the world.

The seamless integration of classic natural materials and state-of-the-art alloys is a hallmark of William Henry's work-no compromises, no shortcuts, exceptional quality. Each component is precision machined to aerospace tolerances. the final fit, finish, action and function of each tool is achieved with the irreplaceable and timeless craftsmanship that has gained the studio international renown, accolades, and devoted users and collectors alike.

Coffin & Trout
7131 W. Ray Rd #22
Chandler, AZ 85226
coffinandtrout.com