Looking to be the hostess with the mostess this holiday season? Take your out-of-town guests to these fabulous Arizona favorites that will be sure to win over their hearts.

The Farm at South Mountain

Enjoy the Arizona winter weather this holiday season at this dreamy outdoor destination. This dazzling 12-acre property gives visitors an elegant dining in Quiescence Restaurant. If you are looking for something more casual, the Farm Kitchen serves up delicious sandwiches, fresh soups, seasonal salads and made-from-scratch baked goods. All of which come in picnic baskets, giving you the opportunity to dine alfresco under the pecan trees. In the mornings, breakfast consisting of house-baked muffins and pastries, locally made sausages and seasonal omelets are served at the Morning Glory Café. The Farm at South Mountain is a kid-, bike- and dog- friendly location and accommodates to any size group. www.thefarmatsouthmountain.com.

Polar Express

Take a ride up to Williams and hop aboard the Polar Express. Trains depart from Williams Depot at 6:30 p.m. and take you on a journey through the dark and quiet wilderness for a special visit to the North Pole. Guests are able to enjoy hot chocolate and cookies while they listen to a magical Christmas story. Santa and his reindeer await your arrival into the North Pole, and board the train to hand each child their own special gift. www.thetrain.com.

Have Dinner at Modern Steak

Discover a dining experience like now other at Modern Steak! The incredible Sam Fox has taken all the culinary elements one would expect to find in a traditional steakhouse – tantalizing appetizers, mouthwatering prime-aged beef and seafood dishes, exquisite sides and salads, irresistible desserts, creative cocktails and an outstanding wine selection – and have given them a unique, fresh and entirely “Modern” spin. But the to-die-for food is not the only thing on the menu. The setting is all about glamour. From the striking white metal sculpture that artfully shades the outside climate controlled patio and all throughout the beautifully appointed dining room, bar and three private dining rooms, Modern Steak offers comfortable, yet affordable elegance and Fox Restaurant Concepts’ signature hospitality.
