

Arizona Theatre Brings Us Sex and the Second City: Version 2.0

Written by By Sarah Rice

Friday, 04 February 2011 08:59 - Last Updated Thursday, 03 March 2011 13:42

Leave the dishes unwashed, the dirty laundry in the hamper, and get a sitter for the kids. Its time to take the night off and enjoy a much needed grown up night. Grab your honey, your friends, or heck just yourself and get your laugh on at the Arizona Theatre Company's limited engagement Sex and The Second City: Version 2.0.

From the comedy kingdom that brought us the beloved Tina Fey, Steve Carrell, John Belushi and many others this crack up comedy is about finding and falling in love in the digital age. "Whether you've been poked, winked or tweeted--or even found love the (gasp) old-fashioned way—you'll LOL at this hilarious look at the technology that was supposed to make our love lives so much easier, but only made it that much more complicated." Be prepared because this romp is bound to have you and your date ROFL (rolling on floor laughing).

Photo by Michael Brosilow

If you missed The Second City comedy's big hit last performance in Arizona, "The Second City Does Arizona, or Close but No Saguaro," don't feel too left out because they are bringing it with their latest performance.

Photo by Michael Brosilow

It all begins in Phoenix March 10-20th and with only 10 performances to hit Phoenix, you better snag those tickets fast. Tickets start at $30 and are available for purchase through the ATC site arizonatheatre.org or through the box office in Phoenix by calling 602.256.6995.