

The Guess Who and Three Dog Night to appear at Encanterra in Arizona

Written by Claire Perkins

Wednesday, 16 February 2011 08:39 - Last Updated Wednesday, 16 February 2011 09:14

Encanterra's The Good Life Fest continues March 5, 2011 with their The Guess Who and Three Dog Night concert! The two sixties bands are expected to draw more than 4,000 guests to Encanterra, a community in the San Tan Valley, for the second installment of The Good life Festival at Encanterra.

The Guess Who and Three Dog Night are ready to rock Encanterra March 5. Tickets begin at $30, and can be purchased here.

The Good Life Fest Details

Guests arrive the day of the concert to the incredible community to enjoy the festival before the music starts, around 12 noon. They are welcome to enjoy:

- Wine tastings- each guest receives a lanyard with a wine glass, which they then use to enjoy 10-12 vinos in the community's various models Gourmet food tastings from luxury vendors
- Tours of the 50,000 sq.-ft. clubhouse, designed by world-renowned architect Bing Hu, with reservations available before and after showtime at the restaurant and bars inside
- Meet and Greets with the bands
- A plaza of local exhibitor booths, from fine wines, cigars and culinary treats to fine art, furniture, boutique clothing and massage therapies

As The Guess Who takes the stage around 4 p.m., guests will enjoy either General Admission seats ($30) or VIP tickets ($120) which offer fruit & cheese platters and a delicious dinner. Three Dog Night will close the night, beginning at 6 p.m.

Three Dog Night

In the late 1960's and early 1970's, nobody had more top ten hits or sold more records or concert tickets than Three Dog Night. By 1975 they'd sold 50 million records. Needless to say, they were the undisputed most popular band in America, with 21 consecutive Top 40 hits and twelve gold LPs. Since 1986, Three Dog Night has toured extensively, with records selling in great numbers. They still receive airplay on radio stations around the globe.

The Guess Who

The Guess Who is known for their 1969 hit album and single American Woman, which has become one of the best rock songs of all time. The 1960's and 1970's put the group along a very elite group of musicians (Elvis, The Beatles and The Rolling Stones) who ever managed to score double-sided number one singles.

For photos of the Kenny G concert held January 29, click here.

For the Daily 60 video of Kenny G, click here.

Encanterra's The Good Life Fest will also feature Chicago this spring at their April 10 concert! Click here for more info.