Q: Why do you support PETA?

A: I am excited to be a spokesperson for Peta because they speak out for the animals that have no voice. They are not afraid to "ruffle feathers" and go after companies and groups that abuse animals. I am excited to speak out about why it is sexier to be vegetarian! Vegetarians weigh less, have bigger hearts, and more energy which equates to a much better love life! Some men get turned on by a woman that makes a great steak, I save my energy for other rooms in the house if you know what I mean! Survival of the Sexiest and saving animals while we do it!
