Pay attention, men. It's time to ditch the old "flowers and card" routine. And listen up, ladies: your man has enough ties hanging in his closet. This time, think outside of the jewelry box and give your special someone something he or she really craves - quality time with you. And the perfect answer? An intimate spa getaway to top-rated, award-winning Miraval Arizona Resort & Spa to take advantage of their Couple's Celebration Package. For a birthday, anniversary, or "just because", the Couple's Celebration is the perfect chance for you to pamper your partner and take time to reconnect.

Your all-inclusive, two-day getaway begins with a bottle of bubbly and chocolate-covered strawberries upon arrival. You will also each receive a $130 spa credit. If you can be convinced to leave the comforts of your luxurious casita, use the credit to indulge in a Reflexology Treatment or Duet Relaxation Massage. End your day with a romantic rose petal turndown service that night.

These special touches are all in addition to Miraval's award-winning experience, which includes healthful meals for breakfast, lunch and dinner, snacks, unlimited participation in daily self-discovery Clue-In™ programs including fitness and yoga classes, lectures, the Miraval Equine Experience, cooking demonstrations; outdoor adventure and challenge activities, and full access to all Miraval resort amenities.

The Miraval Experience is one of true freedom to relax your body, refresh your mind, or unleash your senses. Though plenty of activities are available, none are required - meaning you and your partner have the choice to take on challenges and adventures as a team, or spend time alone in uninterrupted bonding bliss.

Miraval has received international acclaim as the ideal destination for the ultimate retreat. When guests arrive, they are immediately immersed in a sense of quiet calm and intimate surroundings, enhanced by the natural splendor of the spectacular Santa Catalina Mountains. Healthy, sustainable living and mindful balance are the cornerstones of the Miraval philosophy that lead to life-changing experiences for those who visit. So, leave behind the smartphones and laptops and embrace the opportunity to share in experiences that will rekindle romance and create lasting memories.

The all-inclusive Couple's Celebration package begins at $550 per person and is available until April 30, 2012. Reserve now by calling 877.608.6652 and mention promotional code: CELEBRATE. Click here for complete details. Some restrictions apply.
