Tired of the heart-shaped box of chocolates and dozen roses routine on Valentine's Day? Give your honey something sexy and unique, made especially for him by you: Boudoir Photography.

Boudoir is a style of sexy and sophisticated photography to show off your best assets whether it be for you or for him. Although there are various Valley boudoir studios, the Femme Art Boudoir in Phoenix provides clients with a comfortable, fun and memorable photo shoot experience.

Photographer Pamela Nicole Bernasconi and the owner of Anastasia's Fine Lingerie, Lilly Norman, helps you get to know your inner Gisele and Heidi before the shoot begins with a personal style consultation at Anastasia's in Scottsdale. Although you are not required to purchase any lingerie, Norman's beautiful styles will be hard to resist once you catch a glimpse of yourself in the mirror. Femme also recommends indulging yourself with a makeup application, and hair and wardrobe styling by in house makeup artist Linda Wagner. From eyelashes to high heels you will be a true knockout and the rest is up to Bernasconi.

Bernasconi's job is to capture the moments--posed and natural--that emphasize your favorite features while minimizing those you aren't so comfortable with. For those who aren't comfortable with such revealing pictures, Bernasconi recommends wearing anything you feel comfortable, sexy and confident in and she will create gorgeous, tasteful photos. At the end of the day you will leave whatever mansion or resort you are shooting at feeling sexy and confident.

Photos are typically ready in two weeks for you to select your favorites and have them printed out for your honey; although, you will find it is just as much of a gift for you as it is for him. So on Feb. 14 hand your man his little black book then slip into bed with your gorgeous lingerie and sexy newfound confidence and you are sure to make a lasting impression. www.femmeartboudoir.com. www.anastasiasboutiques.com.
